

Ruby Brown has announced her retirement from Eggleston Youth Centers, Inc. Board of Directors, effective December 31st, 2023.

Mrs. Brown has served with distinction on Eggleston's Board of Director's since 2003. During her two decades as a board member, Mrs. Brown has served as President and Vice President. "Her commitment to service in providing the highest standards of quality care to children and families is immeasurable", stated Eggleston Executive Director, Clarence Brown.

Under her leadership and board participation, Eggleston added two new program divisions: Mental Health and Substance Use Disorders. She was instrumental in helping Eggleston achieve national accreditation of all its program divisions. Her ethos of high character, respect, trustworthiness and the uplifting of underserved and marginalized communities, has left an indelible legacy of a true servant; to be emulated by all who will follow in her footsteps.

"I will always be grateful to Mrs. Brown for her belief and trust in me and her sage advice provided whenever I needed someone to consult with regarding major decisions that could impact the future of Eggleston", stated Clarence Brown, Executive Director.

In celebration of Eggleston's 50th anniversary, Mrs. Brown will be honored with the agency's Lifetime Achievement Award at its upcoming banquet, scheduled for October 5th, 2024. Ruby is a proud graduate of Howard University and a member of Holman United Methodist Church. She retired from Westside Regional Center in 2015 after twenty-seven years of distinguished service. Eggleston is proud to award Mrs. Brown the honorary title of Chair Emeritus.

Congratulations
